DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the light emitting surface having a rotationally asymmetric shape" as described in paragraph 50 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-5, 7 and 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1, lines 4-6 is vague and indefinite because applicant claims "the said light emitting surface of semiconductor light-emitting element has "a horizontally elongated shape in a direction orthogonal to an optical axis of said light-emitting element when viewed in the direction of the optical axis of said light-emitting element" which contradicts claim 1 lines 8-11 forming a light distribution pattern by enlarging a light pattern of said light-emitting surface in a horizontal direction, wherein the light-emitting surface of the light-emitting element has a rotationally asymmetric shape and a straight-line edge, whereby the optical system forms the light distribution pattern with a cut line by projecting the straight-line edge of the light-emitting." Even though applicant is claiming the light emitting surface of the semiconductor chip 2 the applicant's drawing and specification appear to indicate that the applicant is referring to the some of the features of the reflector and lens of the headlamp not the light emitting surface of the semiconductor 2.

Furthermore independent claim 12 is vague and indefinite because applicant claims "said light-emitting surface of said light-emitting element having a rotationally asymmetric shape in a direction orthogonal to an optical axis of said light-emitting element when viewed in the direction of the optical axis of said light-emitting element" which contradicts "the light-emitting surface of the light-emitting element has a straight-line edge, whereby the optical system forms the light distribution pattern with a cut line by projecting the straight-line edge of the light-emitting surface." Even though applicant is claiming the light emitting surface of the semiconductor chip 2 the applicant's drawing and specification appear to indicate that the applicant is referring to the some of the features of the reflector and lens of the headlamp not the light emitting surface of the semiconductor 2.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5, 7 and 9-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

1. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Thominet '486, Oyama et al '383, Nakata '364 and Nino et al '381 teach headlamps which are similar to applicant's invention.
